GOLD SPONSORSHIP

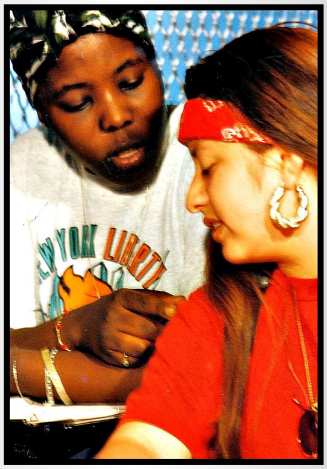
More and more non-profits are entering an entrepreneurial mode, growing commercial activities to improve income streams and educational and economic opportunity.

$20,000

Sponsorships are $1,500 per student per year. Sponsor a full class for a total of 13 students who work with your organization to focus on your company's industry's points of pride and develop products that support your companies

- Complimentary tickets to all company events
- Exhibit table at all company events for the distribution of literature and company product samples.
- Exclusive banner display at public film screenings featuring students film works
- Invitation to speak with students about industry points of pride
- Full Feature story about your company support on local radio broadcasts, news and press releases
- Ad campaign video project for the development of new media company materials
- Film credits for student created film works
- Company banner, logos and links on our website, online channel, facebook and twitter page.

SILVER SPONSORSHIP



We recruit a culturally diverse group of high school students who have an interest in media, video and film, information technology and community leadership

$ 7,500

Sponsorships are $1,500 per student per year. Sponsor 5 students who will work to build and support your company's growth using online social media, ad campaigns and other new media technologies

- Complimentary tickets to all company events
- Exhibit table at company events for the distribution of literature, and company product samples.
- Full Feature story about your support on local radio broadcasts, news and press releases
- Invitation to speak with the class about your industry points of pride
- Development of online social media ad campaign to promote your business or charity
- Film credits for student created film works
- Company banner, logos and links on our website, online channel, facebook and twitter page.

BRONZE SPONSORSHIP

For nearly three decades, we've built a solid reputation for providing quality programs in Film Media Literacy Education

$ 1,500

Sponsorships are $1,500 per student per year. Sponsor a single student and help prepare student portfolio materials for admission to college, arts programs and other educational training opportunities.

- Complimentary tickets to company events
- Your banner, links and/or name recognition on our website, facebook and twitter page
- Film credits for student created film works
- Special invitation to attend adult learning workshop program activities
- Regularly scheduled videos created especially for you and sent directly to your email in-box