

Fun and Funky Paper Jewelry in April

The image is a promotional graphic for Sharon Alama's art. On the left, there are two square earrings made of watercolor paper, decorated with colorful patterns and beads. On the right, there are several framed artworks, including a cat, a hand holding a red circle, a landscape with a boat, and a large flower. The text 'SHARON ALAMA' is prominently displayed in white on a blue background, with the tagline 'Light &amp; Lively!' and 'colorful paper jewelry and whimsical art' below it. At the bottom left, the dates 'Visiting Artist: April 1st-30th, 2016' and 'Reception: April 8th 5:00-8:00 pm' are listed. At the bottom right, the Cazenovia Artisans logo and contact information are provided.

Make sure to stop by during the month of April to check out something new! For April only, Sharon Alama will be joining us and sharing her creative and unique handcrafted paper jewelry with us, and with you.

Sharon's earrings and collages are made from thick watercolor paper which she paints in different color schemes that vary from sheet to sheet. The paper is then torn, folded, varnished, and embellished with beads, threads, and charms. The posts and hooks are hypo-allergenic surgical steel.
