

New Work for May at Cazenovia Artisans

Our members are always busy, always creative, always ready to try something new. Every month, we will bring you a few examples of new work by our artisans and artists. Stop by and see for yourselves.

Bob Ripley's Gorgeous Wood Ducks

We think that Bob and Cheryl Ripley are a couple of lucky ducks. These beautiful birds appear on their pond every Spring like clockwork. They hang around for a few weeks before heading north to their nesting sites. Bob tells us that he thinks the male Wood Ducks are one of America's most striking birds. He has captured their beauty here in this new painting, titled "In Circles". We think we are lucky for having Bob's beautiful paintings grace our walls.

Beautiful Exotic Wood Earrings by John Volcko

Rare and exotic woods from around the world provide the "gems" for these unique earrings crafted by hand by John Volcko. Bookmatched pieces, taken from off cuts of turnings, are carefully finished and fitted with minimal sterling silver findings. Woods include Macassar Ebony, Brazilian Rosewood, Kingwood, Australian Lacewood, Manzanita, Cocobolo, and others. We think these make a terrific addition to the jewelry collections in the shop.

We Have Rings and Now We Have Ring Holders!

We love these new functional ring and jewelry catchers from Jim Burke. Put one over the sink to safeguard your rings while you do the dishes. Put another on your dresser to hold your jewelry at the end of the day. These holders come in several of Jim's wonderful glazes and patterns and make great gifts!
