

New Work for February at Cazenovia Artisans

Our members are always busy, always creative, always ready to try something new. Every month, we will bring you a few examples of new work by our artisans and artists. Stop by and see for yourselves.

New Pillow Covers by Sue Ellen Romanowski

Sue Ellen is always open to new ways to put her quilting and design skills into practice. Recently, she started making lovely pillow covers! These come in two standard sizes - 18" square or 20" square, making it easy for you to buy a standard pillow insert. There are lots of great colors and styles from which to choose - below are two of her newest additions to the shop!

Glass and Wood Lamps by John Volcko

John Volcko has been busy, as he usually is. Most recently, John has made this really nice pair of lamps, sold singly or as a set. They are made of Cherry that has been laminated with Black Walnut and then turned on a lathe. They feature amber glass globes and are finished with high quality solid brass hardware. They have dimmer switches and can accommodate 150 watt dimmable bulbs. What a lovely way to light up your life!

Celeste Friend's Lariat Necklaces

Lariat necklaces are so easy and comfortable to wear. All you have to do is to slip one end through the other and bring the pendant up to your neck. That's it. They are stylish as well, with part of the necklace around the neck, and the rest dangling below. All of Celeste's designs are made from high quality solid sterling silver made here in the U.S. She names each of her designs for the first woman who wears it. The lariat you see here features Celeste's signature square wire chain and is named Jaclyn, named for the woman who bought the first of this design in Richmond, Virginia.

Magic Hour by Bob Ripley

Bob Ripley has just brought a new small original watercolor into the gallery. "Magic Hour" is a remembrance of that window of time when a streams insect activity typically reaches its peak. It's a magical time for flyfishers. This scene is in Owasco Inlet near Moravia.
