

CAZENOVIA ARTISANS

New Work for May at Cazenovia Artisans

Our members are always busy, always creative, always ready to try something new. Every month, we will bring you a few examples of new work by our artisans and artists. Stop by and see for yourselves.

---

Barb Decker's Baby Blankets

While waiting patiently for her first grandchild to arrive, Barb did exactly what we would expect any self-respecting weaver to do: she made him (Winslow to be exact) a baby blanket. Well, she made him a few. And while she was at it, she made more for the shop. These blankets are woven from soft cotton and machine washable. Just perfect for snuggling!

---

"A Good Hatch" by Bob Ripley

Bob Ripley's water is inspired. Layers of blue, green, purple watercolors add up to such a rich interpretation of a river. This piece is so evocative of the quiet river, part in sun and part in shade, its calm interrupted by the casts of a talented fly fisherman. Beautifully framed, this original watercolor painting is a masterpiece and ready to go home with you.

---

Handcrafted Felt Accessories by Our Newest Member

In addition to her beautiful silk and wool felt scarves, our new member Maria Wiklund also makes these colorful and fun brooches - colorful flowers and abstract multicolored felted shapes. What better way to add an artful touch to an outfit or jacket!

---

Board-mounted Art by Lori Portka

In addition to her prayer flags, cards, original paintings, and gratitude kits, Lori is now offering prints of her paintings mounted onto boards. These are ready to hang, and have a nice, modern look. We think they make such colorful and meaningful gifts.

©2017 Cazenovia Artisans | Cazenovia, NY

Web Version

Forward

Unsubscribe

Powered by Mad Mimi®

A GoDaddy® company