

January 12, 2016
For Immediate Press Release:

Miriam Grossman, M.D. to speak about Comprehensive Sex Education (CSE) on Sunday, January 17, 2016 from 3:45-4:30 p.m. at the Liberty Christian Center, 5616 L Street (old Ryan High School) in Omaha. Dr. Grossman is the author of the book, “You’re Teaching My Child WHAT? A Physician Exposes the Lies of Sex Education and How They Harm Your Child.” Sponsored by Nebraskans for Founders’ Values, this event, which is free and open to the public, is part of the ongoing effort to educate the Omaha community, especially parents, about the dangers of CSE. Omaha Public Schools continue to move forward with the effort to incorporate CSE into the curriculum for all students in grades 4-12. For more information, go to www.SaveNebraskaChildren.com

Miriam Grossman, MD is a practicing physician and speaker, and the author of four books. She is known internationally for her courage in breaking ranks and calling foul on the Sexuality Education industry. Dr. Grossman has been on over 200 radio, news, and television shows, and has provided expert testimony in several state legislatures. She has lectured at the British House of Lords and the United Nations, and her work has been translated into ten languages. Dr. Grossman speaks to parents, students, educators, policy makers and health professionals on the importance of childhood innocence, and the dangers of a powerful sex education lobby that promotes sexual license instead of sexual health.

Dr. Grossman graduated with honors from Bryn Mawr College and from New York University Medical School. She completed an internship in pediatrics at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City, and a residency in psychiatry at North Shore University Hospital – Cornell University Medical College, followed by a fellowship in child and adolescent psychiatry at the same institution. Dr. Grossman is board certified in psychiatry and in the sub-specialty of child and adolescent psychiatry.
