JULY 16: FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Readings: Is 55:10-11/Rom 8:18-23/Mt 13:1-23 or 13:1-9

In Jesus' parable of the sower and the seed, we realize that Jesus gives us what we need freely and liberally. We have so many opportunities to hear his word, but do we listen? It is so easy to get distracted by noise of our world and to let the word of the Gospel go in one ear and out the other. Like a farmer tills the soil to receive the seed, do we prepare ourselves to hear Christ's word? Can we carve out some quiet time to read the Gospel and pray with that Word? At Mass, can we listen attentively and perhaps remember one word or phrase from the readings? The Word of God is powerful and effective, but for it to affect us, we must engage it, grapple with it, discuss it and share it. Do not let the Word of God be sown in vain.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time -- July 16, 2017

"A sower went out to sow..." The Sower is still sowing seeds today. What kind of seed are you? Do you have ears to hear God calling you? Talk to Fr. Doug Lucia at (315) 386-2543/ dluca@rcdony.org or Fr. Tom Higman at (518) 594-3907/thigman@rcdony.org or Cathy Russell, the Diocesan Vocation Coordinator at (315)393-2920, ext. 1450/crussell@rcdony.org. See us also on Facebook or at www.myvocation.net.

Children Welcome Here!

To the parents of young children, may we suggest...

- Relax! The Lord put the wiggle in children, so don't feel you have to suppress it in his house. All are welcome!
- Sit toward the front where it is easier for your little ones to see and hear. They tire of looking at the backs of others' heads.
- Quietly explain the parts and actions of the Mass to them.
- Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.
- If you have to leave Mass with your child, feel free to do so... but please come back! As Jesus said: "Let the children come to me" (Mt 19:14).

To the other members of our parish, some reminders...

- The presence of children is a gift to the Church. They give us "a future full of hope" (Jer 9:11).
- The way we welcome children directly affects the way they respond to God and to the Church. Let them know that they can be at home here.
- The parents of young children are doing a great (and sometimes difficult) thing by bringing their kids to Mass. Give them a smile and a word of encouragement!

"Don't judge each day by the harvest you reap but by the seeds that you plant." ~Robert Louis Stevenson

Environmental Stewardship

Pope Francis expresses the value of environmental stewardship within the introductory section of his Encyclical Laudato Si : Care for our Common Home. "Young people demand change. They wonder how anyone can claim to be building a better future without thinking of the environmental crisis and the sufferings of the excluded. Particular appreciation is owed to those who tirelessly seek to resolve the tragic effects of environmental degradation on the lives of the world's poorest."

Solidarity in Faith

Praying for our Brothers and Sisters in Syria

For those whose lives have been sown in a field of weeds. May they persevere until the final harvest. In a special way for those enduring persecution for their faith in Latakia (La-TA-heeya), Syria. We pray to the Lord.

From Fr. Tom...

At the annual Chrism Mass back in April, Bishop LaValley announced that the Roman Catholic Diocese of Ogdensburg was entering into a "twinning" relationship with the Maronite Catholic Diocese of Latakia in Syria. The Christian faith is under harsh attack in the Middle East— in Danger of dying out in the very region where it first began. So our Bishop is calling the people of the North Country into a "solidarity of faith" with our suffering brothers and sisters, out of the belief that we have both much to give and much to receive in such a relationship with a diocese very different from our own. Watch for more information as this initiative takes shape in the months ahead.
