AUGUST 6: TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Dn 7:9-10, 13-14/2 Pt 1:16-19/Mt 17:1-9

You cannot help but love St. Peter. Haven't all of us felt that way at some point or another. Perhaps we were on a wonderful retreat, or maybe a day of prayer on one of our lakes. I am sure that our teenagers who spent a week at Guggenheim have felt like Peter at some point. Can't we just stay here, in this peaceful place, just Jesus and us. But we all must come down the mountain, and eventually pick up our cross. But we should not forget that mountaintop experience, that knowledge that Jesus is with us and God is very much present. And, no matter what happens, we too can take confidence in the words of Jesus: Rise, and do not be afraid.

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord -- August 6, 2017

"Lord, it is good that we are here." Seeing the Lord's glory, the apostles were strengthened to go out to the world as heralds of what they had seen and heard. Is he calling you to share your experience of Him with others as a priest, deacon or religious? Talk to Fr. Doug Lucia at (315) 386-2543/ dlucia@rcdony.org or Fr. Tom Higman at (518) 594-3907/thigman@rcdony.org or Cathy Russell, the Diocesan Vocation Coordinator at (315)393-2920, ext. 1450/crussell@rcdony.org. See us also on Facebook or at www.myvocation.net.

Environmental Stewardship

"Nature is filled with words of love, but how can we listen to them amid constant noise, interminable, and nerve-wracking distractions or the cult of appearances" (Francis 146). We live in a technologically advanced society where there are many distractions that take place in our everyday lives. Our smart phones, social media, materialism, all distract us from our connection with nature and God. A few simple ways to go back to our roots would be to turn off all the distractions, go for a walk or bike ride, meditate or pray. Instead of planning a large vacation, try a stay-cation where you can reduce your carbon footprint and seek out local attractions in your area or stay at home "unplugged" from technology .

DOVS Pilgrimage

Join Bishop LaValley and DOVS on the annual pilgrimage to pray for vocations October 10th. We will visit St. Marianne Cope's Shrine and Museum and have mass and holy hour at the newly renovated cathedral in Syracuse. To reserve a spot or for more information, call Mary at 315-268-1016 or Connie at 315-265-2762.

From Deacon Brian

I would like to amend my report on the yard sale last week. I inadvertently left Dale and Anne Selkirk's names out of the Thank You list. My apologies, "they worked almost as hard as John" 😊

As we gear up for September, if anyone knows of someone who would like to learn more about the Catholic Faith or is in need of sacraments youth or adult- please contact me at the parish office.

We are very grateful for Billy Franks who still takes our recycled bottles in both churches. Billy attends the 4 pm mass at St. George so it would be helpful if you could bring bottles to St. Georges. If they are left at St. Patrick's I find myself carting them over. Thanks for your support and consideration. When you see Billy, be sure to thank him as well for his contribution to the parish! Have a Blessed Week!!
