OCTOBER 22: TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." One interpretation of today's Gospel that we hear a lot is that our citizenship is in heaven, but while here on earth we owe a certain deference to all authority, since all authority comes from God. What does it mean to repay to God what belongs to God? Jesus points out that, since the image of the Caesar is on the coin, it belongs to Caesar. In our baptism, we have been clothed with Christ, and we bear in our body the image of Christ. We are created in the image and likeness of Jesus. From this comes our dignity, but it is also what we owe God: ourselves! Do our lives reflect this? Do we love God with all our being, our mind, our soul, our strength? Or do we give him the leftovers: praying and going to mass grudgingly and when it is convenient or only when we need something. Perhaps this week, let us focus on being grateful for the gift of our human dignity and look for the image of Christ in everyone we meet.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time -- October 22, 2017

God will answer the prayers of those who cry out. Ask for men and women to respond to the call to service as priests and religious. If God may be calling you to the priesthood or consecrated life, talk to Fr. Doug Lucia at (315) 386-2543/ dlucia@rcdony.org or Fr. Tom Higman at (518) 594-3907/thigman@rcdony.org or Cathy Russell, the Diocesan Vocation Coordinator at (315)393-2920, ext. 1450/ crussell@rcdony.org. Consecration of the Diocese

Novena Prayer

To be prayed daily from October 13-21, 2017 in preparation of the Consecration on October 22nd at St. Mary's Cathedral

Loving Mother, 100 years ago you appeared to shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal with a message of penance, prayer, and peace. As we in the Diocese of Ogdensburg prepare to celebrate the anniversary of our Cathedral dedicated to your Assumption and consecrate the entire diocese to your Immaculate Heart, we desire to become like those young shepherds. May we have spirits courageous to face any opposition to the faith, minds made pure of the corruption of the world, and hearts open to your love—both to be received and to be shared.

In a special way during this novena, I ask your intercession on this intention_____.

Lord Jesus, we honor those who bravely built up the Church here in our diocese and around the world. We praise you—the one sure foundation of the Church and of our lives—this day and always. Hear our prayers.

- Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us.
- Our Lady of the Assumption, pray for us.
- Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Explanations about the Catholic Mass
The Procession

Mass always begins with a procession. Depending on the situation, the procession can be long and orate with a cast of dozens, or very short, sometimes just the priest himself. Often at the head of the procession is a crucifer, an altar server carrying a cross or crucifix.

While it may seem that the procession is just pomp and circumstance, it is actually rich in meaning and symbolism. First the cross symbolizes Jesus, and helps us to "(Keep) our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith" according to Hebrews 12:2. The candles in the procession symbolize the light of Christ, which we are all suppose to bring to the world. And the procession itself symbolized the Church, the people of God, a pilgrim people making their way toward heaven. Remember, the Mass is the heavenly banquet, the wedding feast of the Lamb! Finally, the procession may conjure up images of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. Just as then, we, the people, welcome Jesus into our midst as He offers His Body and Blood for us.

Employment Opportunity

The Roman Catholic Diocese of Ogdensburg is seeking an Assistant Director of Faith Formation for the Western Region & Director of Formation for Ministry. The individual will be responsible for the management of the western regional office of Faith Formation and the supervision of the Formation for Ministry Program. The Assistant Director must be a practicing Catholic and a Master's Degree is preferred in the field of religious studies, religious education or faith formation. Additional qualifications include: successful experience as a catechist, knowledge of current catechetical documents, familiarity with the characteristics of the adult learner, a proven record in interpersonal skills and competency in the use of technology both administratively and in instructional settings. Submit letter of interest, resume and three professional references to: Human Resources Office, Diocese of Ogdensburg, P.O. Box 369, Ogdensburg, NY 13669. Deadline for application is October 27, 2017.

PLEASE NOTE: Effective Oct 26th the Thursday 8:30 Mass at St. George's will be held at St. Patrick's until Mid April.
