Mal 1:14b—2:2b, 8-10/1 Thes 2:7b-9, 13/Mt 23:1-12

Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, but whoever humbles himself will be exalted. How hard it is, especially when we have been places in a role of authority where people notice us, to be humble. How hard it is not to want people's approval and to look good in the eyes of others. But what matters is to do the will of the one master, Christ our Lord. Everything we have is his, and every good we are able to do is pure gift. So let us work and pray so as to please the Lord, and everything else will fall into place.

From Deacon Brian

With praise and glory to almighty God, I would like to thank all who made our Harvest Dinner such a success! Not only is the dinner a great support financially, but also it is a great way to build community in our parish.

A special thanks to Christine LaDuke and Don Bilow co-chairs of the dinner for all their blood, sweat, and tears in taking care of all the details in planning, to the committee workers, office staff and all who supported the dinner... Thank You!!!

The month of November is dedicated to prayer for all the faithful departed especially we remember those in our parish who have died in the past year. Eternal rest grant unto them Oh Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Today we celebrate stewardship Sunday as a reminder that God has blessed us abundantly with many gifts and our response to his love is to share these gifts with your parish family.

Fr. Tom & I are most grateful for the many ways you share your time, talents and treasure to help support our faith community. May God Bless you abundantly for your generosity to the parish. We ask you to continue to discern how God maybe prompting you to bet serve your parish.

Have a Blessed week!!

Review of Parish Finances & Weekly Needs

Based on the 2017-2018 parish budgets that were submitted to the Diocese, below are the weekly collection figures that are needed in order for the parishes to meet their weekly expenses. Approximately 30% of each figure listed below is used for Diocesan expenses such as Assessments, Property Insurance and Catholic School Support. The remaining 70% is used for payroll and benefits, ordinary utilities, maintenance, repairs, office operational needs, and with winter coming upon us soon, the expense of heating fuel, etc. (The parish budgets do not include any cemetery income/expenses and also do not include any special collections).

CCBC Weekly Parish Budget of $3745.13 weekly needed to break even

As you can understand by noticing the collection totals printed in the bulletin each week, the parish often is not meeting the weekly budget needs to break even. Some weeks it has been putting a strain on the parishes' savings when bills need to be paid and resources cannot meet the demands. In order to keep afloat, alternative sources of income need to be seriously examined. They may be in the form of stewardship, additional fundraising, or other ways that can generate revenue at this pivotal time. These words are not to cause dissatisfaction, but to alert everyone to a reality that needs our attention as well as to ask for suggestions and support to solve this problem and map out a course of action.
