THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wis 6:12-16/1 Thes 4:13-18 or 4:13-14/Mt 25:1-13

How do you think of heaven? Do you think of it as a big wedding feast? Are you ready for the feast? It is so easy in our day and age to get distracted and forget that the goal is heaven. We, like the foolish ones, get bored waiting and allow our spirits to doze off. But Jesus reminds us in the Gospel today to stay alert, to remember who we are and what it is we hope for, to truly live our faith and not simply go through the motions. Shine your light so that others may see and also desire to come in to celebrate the great feast in heaven.

From Fr. Tom

The Catholic Community Transition Team is active and is meeting regularly to compile and submit a Pastoral Plan to the Bishop by the end of the year. Participants were chosen because of their vested interests in the six churches and their open willingness and understanding of the spiritual needs of the communities served. I will keep you informed of the discussions and of the final draft that will be submitted to the Bishop. Some of the future planning items for Northern Franklin County involve the following:

- A plan is needed in the event one of our Priests is unable to serve
- Changes in frequency, location, and times of Masses, keeping in mind attendance and miles traveled, etc.
- What to do with unused buildings such as the Parish Center in Bombay. The Committee was unanimous in their recommendation to sell the Bombay building. This will be requested in the Pastoral Plan.
- The Committee will also recommend one celebration of Confirmation in 2019 including all candidates from the six churches.
- Parish income which should be sufficient to develop a cash reserve equal to 180 days of parish operating expenses.
- The possibility of having a seasonal schedule will be discussed.
- Starting April 7th, there will be one less Mass on Saturday. Time and place to be determined.
- There will be no daily Mass in Constable from December 1st April.

Following are the sub-committees that will be meeting and making recommendations:

Administrative: Jerry Rufa, Jack LaCroix, Peggy Lester Jen Rearden, Dick Onufer

Outreach: Joelle Lamica, Sharon Malette, Lori Tulip Robin & Alicia Charland

Liturgical: Betty Cook, Pat Mathews, Cherie Jock Lucien Leroux
Buildings: Rod Lauzon, Harold Phillips, Jay Brockway Dale Selkirk

Faith Formation: Angie Bashaw, Paula Boyea Karen Matthews, Nikki Dumas

I will keep you informed as the report progresses

We have set three parish wide meetings for any interested parishioner to attend so they can voice any concerns and add any concrete suggestions to aid the team in the formulation of a proposed plan for our parishes to the Bishop.

- Sunday November 26th: St. Patrick's, Chateaugay (immediately following the 11am mass)
- Saturday December 2: St. Francis in Constable. 11am
- Tuesday December 5: St. Mary's Fort Covington. 6:30pm

Any parishioner can go to any of the meetings that best fits their schedule.

The transition meeting minutes are on the parishes websites: [smsj Catholics.com](http://smsj Catholics.com) & [cwtr Catholics.org](http://cwtr Catholics.org)
