

The Buss Report

Andy Buss' Quarterly Newsletter

January — March 2014

Public Appearances

February 1: I was called upon by the Michiana Walleye Association to conduct a pair of seminars on summer and fall bass fishing at the South Bend Sport and Boat Show in South Bend, Indiana (left), but also to direct the managers of the program to find additional speakers.

March 1 & 2: Located in Edwardsburg, Michigan I worked as an expert angler on fishing rods and bass fishing at the annual Lunker's Extravaganza Sports Show.

March 7, 8, & 9: At the Bass Pro Shops in Portage, Indiana I conducted a total of seven seminars on various bass fishing techniques (right and below).

March 15: Again as an expert on rods and bass fishing, I worked at the annual open house at Albertson's Sports Shop in Warsaw, Indiana.

Media Exposure

January 26: An announcement was made in The South Bend Tribune and Goshen News for my upcoming seminars at the South Bend Sport & Boat Show.

March 29: First tournament of the season and I scored a Top 5 and landed the Big Bass Award. The event took place on the St. Joe River in Elkhart, Indiana. The water temperature was just 38 degrees. Further coverage can be found at www.louiestout.com and www.randbbasscircuit.com.

Upcoming Tournament Schedule:

April 5: St. Joe River
April 13: Lake Wawasee
April 19: Lake Wawasee
April 26: Lake Wawasee

May 4: Lake Maxinkuckee
May 10: Lake Wawasee
May 17: Lake James
May 26: Diamond Lake

June 21: Randall Lake
June 28: Lake Michigan

R & B News

The 2014 season promises to be big. Website traffic this winter has surpassed all previous winters with an average visitation over 1,200 hits per month.

March 29: Despite snow, temperatures in the mid 30's, 38 degree water, and strong winds, we still drew 19 hardcore anglers for an open tournament which raised money for the 2014 Classic.

2014 Tournament Shirt

