About the clinician: Anne Eilinger is a long-time friend to CNYD&CTA, having helped many of our combined training members get their horses started over drops, ditches, and water combinations. She is a graduate "A" Pony Clubber with riding experience through the Preliminary Eventing level. Anne is a patient and effective trainer with many years of experience starting young horses and bringing them up through the levels. She is a popular instructor for adult amateurs of all levels. She also spent over seven years as a therapeutic riding instructor.
