Faith Seeking Understanding

Want to be happy? Be grateful

That's what a David Steindl-Rast says. The Benedictine monk is known worldwide for his teaching of practices of gratitude. "Practices" may actually make it sound more difficult or complex that it needs to be, however, as Brother David's counsel is really rather simple. Reminding us of the three instructions we were given as children when approaching a street corner, he tells us to "Stop, look, and go." Stop – slow down, take a break, pause long enough to take a breath. Look – notice and pay attention to just how many things are given to us freely and without expectation (for such is the heart of gratitude). Go – move back into your life and the world animated by this sense of undeserved privilege and gratitude.

Pastor Tim Malek

Brother David starts with an assertion that I think often seems counter-intuitive but that I firmly believe is true: it's not that happy people are grateful, but rather that grateful people are happy. And it struck me at this time of year, moving from Christmas to the beginning of a new year, when there seems to be so much going on that it can be just dizzying, that this message of practicing gratitude would be just perfect. So whether it's by singing Christmas carols the next two Sundays in church, or enjoying all the Christmas cards you received before discarding them (I rarely have a chance to read them until after Christmas), or gathering with family and friends to celebrated the dawning of a new year, I hope you take time today to stop to notice the many gifts and graces of this life that you may head into the daily responsibilities and opportunities of your life grateful...and happy.[I am grateful for the Rev. Dr. David Lose who posted the source material about Steindl-Rast a few years ago]

Grateful and happy to serve our Lord with you another year,
Pastor Tim

CALVARY'S BOOK CLUB: A Place to Belong & Thrive

January's book will be "Before We Were Yours" – by Lisa Wingate.

A 2017 New York Times bestseller, Lisa Wingate's Before We Were Yours is a haunting and compelling work of historical fiction told in polyvocal form with two alternating principle voices narrating a story of complex family history. From chapter to chapter, the book goes back and forth between present day South Carolina (in settings of Southern power and prestige) and Tennessee in the late 1930s and early 1940s (in settings of squalor and abuse). In attempting to map out a family's history, the novel also reads as an engaging mystery with a smart, soulful young lawyer leading the detective work, hunting to learn the full truth of her now senile grandmother's life.

Our group is going to monthly meetings. Our first meeting of the new year is Monday, January 20th @ 7:00pm in the Friendship Room at Calvary. Everyone is welcome; join us when it fits your schedule. If you have questions or would like to be added to our Facebook group please contact Sara Bennett (320) 444-3769/ sarabennett26@gmail.com

Thank you to Calvary Pastors, friends and my family for all the prayers, visits, cards and care given to me during my cancer treatments. Blessings to all.

Jean Holmgren

We would like to Thank our church family for all the wonderful birthday wishes celebrating our 90th birthdays. It was a great day! God is good. Thank you!

Bob and Elaine Howell

We are richly blessed to have so many who love and care for our children. We thank God for your dedication and service to all our children at Calvary

Faith Formation

We are so grateful to everyone who took time during Christmas to help with our host week, what a wonderful way to share with others during the Christmas season.

Please mark these dates on your calendar and watch for the Sign Up for these upcoming host weeks. February sign up is now out so please take the time and sign up, we can't do this without your willingness to serve.

Please contact the Board of Outreach and volunteer to help with this ministry!

Remarks from the President . . . . .

My term as President of our congregation will end next month, and I have been reflecting on the opportunities and challenges that our Church Council addressed over the past 12 months.

Like all churches in today’s world, Calvary is undergoing many changes, and these transformations can be hopeful & exciting - or threatening & disappointing - depending on your perspectives. I can assure you that our Church Council and pastoral staff will continue to work diligently to act in the best interests of our congregation as a whole as decisions are made, and plans are laid for our future.

Fortunately, many things are staying the same at Calvary . . . . . we continue to have an active, vibrant congregation, full of faithful Christians who readily volunteer and work to uphold our mission to serve our Lord - "Together in Christ, empowered to be and make disciples."

- † We have a healthy place where your faith can be cultivated, relationships can be built and enjoyed, and from where ministries can be launched.
- † We have a welcoming culture and atmosphere, developed and crafted over the years by the efforts of every member of Calvary.
- † We have dedicated and talented pastors, who lead enjoyable and relevant worship services and experiences, along with providing meaningful and helpful ministries for our members in their daily lives.
- † We have skilled and dedicated staff, who provide a wide array of impactful programming for youth and the elderly—and for everyone in between—while providing excellent administrative support and care for our beautiful facilities.

I have been blessed by the opportunity to serve as Congregational President, and have appreciated the ideas, comments, and suggestions that many of you have provided - Thank You!!!
