

University of Georgia Kyle Harris 2018-20 authentic jersey, size 54.

Cumming, Georgia native Kyle Harris played junior hockey for the TPH Thunder in the Tier 1 Elite Midget league before coming to the University of Georgia. As a rising sophomore, he was selected to play on the SECH All-Star Challenge team and on the 2018 Men's Division III Select Team. The ACHA Select Team consisted of 22 players from 14 ACHA colleges and universities and Harris competed with teammate Carter Penzien in Krasnoyarsk, Russia from September 28 to October 8. At the start of the 2018-19 season, he was named an alternate captain for the Ice Dogs and in February, Harris was named to the All SECH-Second Team. This red jersey from JOG Sportswear was designed with the new University-approved embroidered Georgia Hockey Club logo on the front below the lace-up neckline. The twin bulldog logos are embroidered directly to each shoulder. The JOG logo is embroidered below the rear neckline. All numbers and the alternate captain A are two color twill and sewn on. The blank jersey was purchased from the team and customized to team specifications.

