

Atlanta Flames 1977-78 team issued jersey, size L.

This beautiful Russell Athletic white mesh jersey has been well preserved. There is no record of any player wearing number 20 for Atlanta during the 1977-78 season. With no game use wear, this is likely a team extra that was never used, especially with no fight strap added by the team. The crest and numbers consist of two color red and gold sewn-on twill, while the red and gold bands on the waist and sleeves are the rubberized screened type, characteristic of the Russell jerseys used during the Flames last three seasons in Atlanta. The twill front crest and numbers confirms this jersey is from the 1977-78 season as the '78-80 jerseys had screened on crest and numbers. This is my first Atlanta Flames jersey; I acquired this jersey from Classic Auctions during their fall 2013 auction.
