

Macon Whoopee Nic Beaudoin 2001-02 game used helmet.

Ontario native Nic Beaudoin was selected by the Colorado Avalanche in the 2nd round of the 1995 NHL Entry Draft, 51st overall. He began his professional career with the Hershey Bears in the AHL during the 1996–97 season, playing 34 games. After his first season in the AHL, Beaudoin played in the ECHL, UHL and the QSPHL. This CCM 852 black helmet is from the Macon Whoopee's only season in the ECHL. It has team applied sponsor logos on each side and the player number on the back. The CCM logo on the front has been covered with black tape. The inside is lined with dark gray foam. The helmet was purchased from another collector.

