

Atlanta Thrashers Andy Sutton 2003-04 game worn preseason jersey, size 58, Meigray #B00537.

This Koho home jersey was worn by defenseman Andy Sutton during the preseason. Sutton spent four and a half seasons with the Thrashers, playing in 65 games during the 03-04 season. At 6 feet six inches and 245 pounds, Sutton was one of the more imposing defensemen in the NHL. This size 58 navy and maroon home jersey has the embroidered alternate logo on the front and the primary logos on the shoulders. Two color sewn twill numbers are on the back and sleeves and two color sewn letters make up the nameplate. The embroidered NHL shield is sewn on the rear hem, and the embroidered Reebok logo is sewn above the nameplate. The arrow stripes are located around the neck and at the bottom hem and the sleeves have the feathered trim. It has been photo matched to a picture taken of Sutton during a preseason game in October. This jersey is complete with a letter of authenticity from the NHL and Meigray. I purchased it from another collector.
