

Augusta Riverhawks Matt Auffrey J.D. Paugh Memorial Night authentic jersey, size 56.

Matt Auffrey was drafted by the Anaheim Ducks in 2004. After playing junior and college hockey, Auffrey entered the professional ranks with the Augusta Lynx in 2007-08. After the Lynx folded mid-season in 2008, he played in the ECHL, AHL and the IHL before returning to Augusta to open the Riverhawks inaugural season in 2010. Auffrey played all three seasons with the Riverhawks before the team was forced to suspend operations due to issues with the ice floor at the James Brown Arena. He led the team in games played, goals, assists, total points and penalty minutes. Auffrey was a fan favorite and served as the team captain for all three seasons.

