

Atlanta Thrashers Johan Hedberg 2009-2010 Bauer game worn glove set

These white, burgundy, navy, and gold Bauer Vapor goalie gloves were worn by Johan Hedberg during the 2009-10 NHL season, his last with the now defunct Atlanta Thrashers. Hedberg made his NHL debut in 2000-01 with the Pittsburgh Penguins, and helped them make it to the Conference Finals that year. After three seasons with the Penguins, Johan spent one season each with Vancouver and Dallas before finding a home with the Thrashers, where he played for four seasons. These gloves both have the player name "Hedberg" embroidered on the cuffs. These gloves have been photo matched to pictures taken at the beginning of the season. Both gloves exhibit extensive use and are the perfect complement to my game worn Hedberg jersey from the same season.
