

Gwinnett Gladiators Bo Dolan 2014-15 game used helmet.

St. Paul, Minnesota native Bo Dolan started his professional career with Gwinnett in 2014-15 after playing four years at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. In 132 games for the RPI Engineers, the 5-foot-11, 190-pound defenseman scored three times, adding in 24 assists and 108 penalty minutes. In 59 games with the Gladiators, Dolan scored four goals with ten assists for 14 points and 91 penalty minutes. Prior to his college career, Dolan also played junior hockey for the USHL's Sioux Falls Stampede and Tri-City Storm as well as the Penticton Vees of the BCHL. This CCM Vector 08 black helmet has team applied numbers on the front and back and Gwinnett wordmark logos on each side. The helmet also has a half shield, elastic chin strap and ECHL logo. The damage to the CCM logo on the front has been photo matched to a picture taken of Dolan in February 2015. The helmet was purchased directly from the team.
