

Atlanta Gladiators Tyler Shiplo 2015-16 game used helmet, size M.

Tyler Shiplo rejoined the Gladiators after scoring one goal with two assists in eight games after signing his first professional contract in March, 2015 after leaving Mercyhurst University, where he played four seasons for the Lakers. Shiplo appeared in forty games in the 2015-16 season, scoring 2 goals with 7 assists for 9 points. The Oakville, Ontario native finished his first full pro season with 38 penalty minutes and a -7 plus minus rating. This CCM Resistance white helmet has team applied numbers on the front and back and Gladiator primary logos on each side. The helmet also has an Oakley VR901 shield along with the original chin strap. A ECHL logo sticker is affixed on the right rear side. The helmet was purchased from another collector who acquired it directly from the team at their equipment sale.

