

Gwinnett Gladiators Mike Vigilante 2007-08 game used gloves.

Dearborn, Michigan native Mike Vigilante was the first player signed for the Gladiators in 2007-08, his last season as a professional. Vigilante wore the captain's C at the start of the season. He only played in 22 games due to a concussion and scored 11 goals with four assists for 15 points. Vigilante also played three games with the AHL Manitoba Moose. Following his retirement from professional hockey, he started Vigilante Hockey Camps with his brothers in his hometown of Dearborn. Vigilante is also active as a youth hockey coach. These CCM Pro Tacks 14" gloves from his last pro season show good wear with loose stitching and holes in the outer fabric and palms. Vigilante's number 21 is written in black sharpie on the palm. The gloves were purchased from another collector.

