Jesus couldn't have been more clear. If you want to avoid condemnation, don't condemn other people. Let's say you see a person sleeping on a park bench. You wonder how he got there. You wonder why he isn't trying to fix his life. Jesus says, "Don't condemn him." Or you are listening to the news when a story about a politician you don't like comes on. You recall the evil policies he or she has supported, and you feel disgust for this person. Jesus says, "Don't condemn." Or you learn of a teenager who is pregnant out of wedlock. Jesus says, "Don't condemn her." To the best of your ability, put aside harsh judgements and condemning thoughts. If not for the other person's sake, then for your own sake. Try to rise above the realm of judgement, where everyone gets what's coming to them—because everyone in that realm will be judged harshly. Even you! Instead, step into the realm of God's mercy. Move into the realm where everyone is invited to forgiveness and treated with love, dignity, and generosity. Even you. Give the gift of forgiveness, and it will be given to you. Give the gift of a 2nd, 3rd, or hundredth chance—and it will be given to you. Even if you don't want to give, do it anyway. Jesus commands it, and he promised eternal rewards to those who do.
