In today's second reading, St. Paul tells us that confessing that Jesus is Lord and believing in his resurrection will bring us to the ultimate goal of our lives; heaven itself. But this is one of those "gospel truths" that comes with an asterisk attached. We recite the Nicene Creed at every Sunday Mass. So if we say it with faith, isn't that all we need to do to get to heaven? Not exactly. Remember, even the devil believes that Jesus is the "son of the Most high God." Clearly, there must be more to this than simply reciting the truths of our faith. Something has to happen inside of us as well. And that something is faith. Faith in Jesus sanctifies our hearts. It directs the affections of our hearts toward Jesus. It moves us to say no to sin. Every day this Lent, the Holy Spirit wants to move you toward a deeper faith, a faith that strengthens your love for Jesus and other people. Think of it this way. Married couples know that love involves much more than saying and believing the words "I love you." They know it means staying united, serving each other, working our difference's, and putting each other above themselves. Likewise, confessing Jesus as Lord and believing it in your heart is much more than accepting a fact and saying it. Confessing and believing is a way of faith. It's a way of life.

Questions of the Week
 First Sunday of Lent-Gospel: Lk 4, 1-13

Lent is time to open our hearts more fully to Jesus.

Youth: When you feel tempted to do wrong, how do you remain strong in your faith?
Adults: What is one thing you will do during Lent to become more open to God in your life?
