All three readings today urge us to do one thing: fix our eyes on heaven. Jesus gives Peter, James, and John a vision of his heavenly glory. He knew he was headed for the cross and that his death would shake them to the core. So he gave them this vision to strengthen their faith and encourage them, even as they saw him arrested, tortured, and killed. He wants us to focus on his glory and his promises as we pray each morning. He knows that if we do, we'll give the Holy Spirit the opportunity to write these promises on our hearts. We'll let the Spirit show us Jesus' love and mercy so that we can stay close to him during the day. Fix your heart on the way it reveals God's love for you. Look up to heaven, and let your heart be filled with all its goodness and grace!

Questions of the Week
 Second Sunday of Lent-Gospel: Lk 9, 28-36

Youth: Jesus invites you to be close to him, to see him with clear eyes. What is Jesus like as a friend?
Adults: How is the season of Lent "transforming" your life and bringing you closer to Jesus?
