On Ash Wednesday, we began Lent with the age-old call to repentance: "Return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning." For the children of Abraham, God's mercy came in the form of release from slavery in Egypt. Likewise, he shows mercy to us because we are his children, and he doesn't want to see us bound in sin. "The Lord, Lord, a God gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in love and fidelity." When Jesus came, he focused his ministry on the mercy and graciousness of his heavenly Father. But even more important, he showed himself to be the very mercy of God. He refused to condemn a woman caught in adultery. He welcomed tax collectors and sinners as disciples. And best of all, he promised the thief on the cross, "Today you will be with me in Paradise." It's no wonder that one of the most common sentences Jesus heard while he was on earth was "Have mercy on me!" It's a prayer he can not help but answer!
