Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more. (John 8:11) Wouldn't you love to know what happened to this woman after she left Jesus that unforgettable day? We almost never learn what happened to people in the Gospels after Jesus healed or forgave them. So let's try to imagine what happened next for this woman. Jesus' refusal to condemn her must have affected her to the core. His act of mercy saved her life, not just physically, but spiritually as well. Maybe she was so grateful to Jesus that she became one of his followers. Maybe she went back to her husband to be reconciled. One thing we can't imagine is that she went back to living the way she had in the past. This is what happens when we have an encounter with God's mercy. Do you want to have this kind of encounter? The words Jesus spoke to this woman are essentially the same words the priest says to us in Confession: "I absolve you from your sins." Let Jesus' mercy set you free. Then spend the remaining days leading to Easter thanking him for loving you so much. Let your gratitude move you to follow your Savior even more closely—and to be just as merciful to the people around you as he is to you.

Questions of the Week
 Fifth Sunday of Lent.—Gospel: Jn 8, 1-11
 God wants us to come back. Now is the time to reconcile.
Youth: How does the Sacrament of Reconciliation help us experience God's forgiveness?
Adults: Against whom do you hold prejudices? Who do you believe is a greater sinner than yourself?

Go behind the scenes of UNPLANNED, the inspiring true story of one woman's journey of transformation. All Abby Johnson ever wanted to do was help women. As one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation, she fought to enact legislation for the cause she so deeply believed in. Until the day she saw something that changed everything, leading Abby to join her former opponents at 40 Days For Life, and become one of the most ardent pro-life speakers in America.
