See why Formed is called the Catholic "Netflix!"

Did you know that the Greek word for "jealously" is the same word for "zeal"? Jealousy arises when we see someone else enjoying something we wish we had. Zeal, on the other hand, arises out of a desire to see other people enjoy something we know to be good and desirable. Jealousy is self-focused, while zeal is other-focused. This distinction can help us understand the reaction of some of the Jews in the synagogue. They had become jealous at the sight of a large crowd gathering to hear Paul and Barnabas preach. As we see someone enjoying something desirable, our desire for that object grows. If we're not careful, our desire can turn into resentment toward that person. And our resentment can grow so intense that our focus shifts from the object to the person we have become jealous of. It's why Cain killed Abel. It's why some Pharisees hated Jesus. The best way to overcome this kind of jealousy is to ask God to help you turn the tables on it. Practice zealous generosity instead. Rather than grasping after what someone else has, give them the gift of your prayers. Rather than turning against them, try to be happy that they are enjoying whatever it is you wanted for yourself. Stifle any self-focused jealousy by smothering it with other-focused love and compassion. Jealousy doesn't have to control you. You can control it—through God's grace.

Questions of the Week
Fourth Sunday of Easter

Youth: Jesus promises to guard us like a shepherd does the sheep. How do you experience his loving care in your life?

Adults: What is your experience of being a follower of Christ, of being cared for and guarded with him as shepherd?

In need of some Sunday humor?

A married couple were arguing who is making the coffee, the wife said that in the Bible it says that men should make the coffee and the husband asked her where it said that. The wife opened the Bible and said: "Right here in HE-BREWS!"
