Wouldn't you like a little more peace in your life and in the world? News reports are full of stories of conflicts, both national and international. Relationships suffer from discord and disagreements. Even our own thoughts and desires can be conflicted at times. Where can peace come from? From Jesus, of course! In today's Gospel, when he offers peace to his disciples, the word Jesus uses is the Hebrew word shalom, which means welfare and wholeness. Shalom is used as both a greeting and a farewell—usually between two friends wishing the best for each other. But Jesus doesn't simply wish his disciples peace; he gives it to them. Jesus gives that peace to you too. It starts internally, as you come to know the mercy, love, and salvation you have received in Christ. Every time you go to Confession, every time you pray before the Blessed Sacrament, Jesus' peace takes a greater hold in your life. It matures every time you stop yourself from getting agitated by what you see round you or within you. Every time you pray. "Come, Holy Spirit," you are reaching out to the One who speaks peace into your heart. Gradually, your heart opens up to trust that God's love for you can overcome any conflict you see. As you cultivate that internal peace, it will begin to extend out from you into your relationships. And from there, who knows? As each of us cultivates peace, it will make the world a more and more peaceful place.

Questions of the Week
Fifth Sunday of Easter

Youth: How do you experience the peace which Christ offers us?

Adults: Jesus told us to trust in the Holy Spirit to help guide our lives. How can you be open to what the Holy Spirit might say to you?

In need of some Sunday humor?
An elderly woman had just returned to her home from church when she was startled by an intruder. As she caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables, she yelled, "Stop - Acts 2:38!" (..turn from your sin...) The burglar stopped dead in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done. As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, "Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you." "Scripture?" replied the burglar, "She said she had an AXE and two 38's!"
