Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? (Luke 12:51) Of course he came to establish peace on earth! That may be true, but at the same time, Jesus' entire public life seemed to be marked by division and controversy. So is Jesus a source of peace? Or is he a source of division? He's both. Jesus knows that not everyone will embrace his message and the peace that comes with it. He also knows that divisions will arise because of this. On a grand scale, we have seen this in religious conflicts around the globe. And on a more intimate scale, we see this in many families. At times, the differences can be so strong as to cause conflict and separation. Divisions may be inevitable, but they don't have to be permanent. That's where you come in. How will you respond when those divisions manifest themselves at home? With compassion, prayer, and understanding? Or with defensiveness, arguments, and condemnation? Jesus is the Prince of Peace because he came to bring peace to our divided hearts. And as our own divided hearts are healed, we learn how to love as he loves and how to forgive as he forgives. You can make a difference. Stay close to Jesus, who is your peace. Never underestimate the impact you can have!

Dr. Ray Guarendi shares his story of how logic led him home to the Catholic Church. He found out that, contrary to his Protestant misunderstandings, the Church is coherent and never contradicts herself. Dr. Ray explains how the answers to his objections to Catholicism were both Biblical and believed by the earliest Christians. Explore the logic that led him to the fullness of truth.
