When you hold a banquet... (Luke 14:13) Doesn't it seem as if Jesus is giving his fellow dinner guests etiquette lessons here? He's telling them whom to invite and whom not to invite. But Jesus is doing something more important than teaching good manners. He is challenging his listeners

– and us– to move beyond the safe circles we tend to build for ourselves. They're cozy. They're comfortable. And they create a closed loop. There is no room for people who are different from us, especially the poor or anyone who might make us feel uncomfortable. Jesus loves seeing us come together and enjoy each others' company. He even promised to be with us when "two or three are gathered" in his name. The problem comes when this is the only kind of interaction we have. He doesn't want to see us trapped in the same closed loop that ensnared the people in today's Gospel. He is asking you to stretch out your hand a little more to the "poor" people around you. It could be a family from your parish or neighborhood who is struggling through unemployment. You don't even have to share a meal. All Jesus is asking for is your willingness to give without expecting anything in return. It's what he does for you; now he is asking you to do the same.

Register Now

Dr. Ray Guarendi shares his story of how logic led him home to the Catholic Church. He found out that, contrary to his Protestant misunderstandings, the Church is coherent and never contradicts herself. Dr. Ray explains how the answers to his objections to Catholicism were both Biblical and believed by the earliest Christians. Explore the logic that led him to the fullness of truth.
