He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. (Luke 15:20) This beloved story is usually called "the parable of the prodigal son." But what if we looked at it as a story of a prodigal father instead? The father is prodigal. First, he freely gives his younger son his inheritance years before the proper time. Then, maybe more important, when this son returns, he is exceedingly prodigal in welcoming him back: the finest robe, a ring, new sandals, and a great feast, to top it all off. It's no wonder the older son got upset! How could his father be so free with his gifts? How could he be so glad to accept that wasteful, irresponsible son back into his home? It's hard to understand how or why he could welcome his wayward son back into full status as a child and heir. We might think that for the sake of fairness, the father should have made the young man pay back what he had squandered or suffer some other kind of consequence for his actions before he could be forgiven. But that would be misunderstanding mercy. The father in this parable gives us a glimpse of our heavenly Father. He sends Jesus to pour out his entire self to welcome us back home. Jesus revealed God's shockingly generous mercy. This is the mercy that God has for you—and for everyone around you.

Me & My House is a practical game plan for Catholic parents who are struggling with all the things that parents struggle with.

We challenge you to do little things. To make little changes that will make a huge impact on your family. In this Catholic Parenting Program, you will discover the foundations that can strengthen your motherhood and fatherhood. You will learn the habits that can make parenting easier, and the habits that you absolutely want to avoid. In fact, we will get so practical that we'll discuss discipline and how to set boundaries, so that by the end of the program you will have a very clear sense of how you want to build your unique family culture with the children God has given you..
