The story this weekend tells us that we all need support at times. It can be very tiring to keep praying. It takes a lot out of us. The truth is, each one of us needs our brothers and sisters in Christ to hold us up. They help us persevere. You can probably recall times when you've reached out to a friend and asked him to pray with you for something important. His support meant a lot to you.

When you don't see an immediate answer to your prayers, your friends can help you perceive the field of battle more clearly and draw you retention to the ways God is already working. They might remind you of specific times that God has answered your prayers or theirs in the past. And when you feel completely in the dark, they can stand with you and pray with you as you do your best to keep moving forward. You can do the same for them too. So don't go it alone! Maybe you already have someone who can stand with you in prayer, a friend who will join her voice to yours as you intercede. But if not, ask the Lord for someone to partner with you. He loves to send people who will be there to hold you up.
