Power, influence, authority, leadership— that's what we usually think of when we hear the word "king." But as we celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King today, our readings show us a different kind of king, someone who challenges our core assumptions about power and leadership. When Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925, at a time when Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin were rising to power, Pius XI wanted to draw the world's attention back to Jesus, the only One who could bring lasting peace. It was the peace of a king who chose not to save himself but instead offered himself for our sake to reconcile us to God. He refused to come down from the cross because his mission was to save us, not to conquer us. He chose instead to focus his attention on the thief crucified beside him who pleaded for mercy. Jesus turns our concept of kingship on its head. Power made strong by humility and self-emptying. Influence and authority exercised through self-sacrifice and mercy. Leadership displayed in service. Let's pray that it be more fully established in us and through us in our world.

We have the list for the gifts to purchase, or the gifts are already wrapped and ready to put under the tree. Plans are set for Christmas dinner, and we may be stressing about how it will all come together perfectly. During this season, we need to come Together As One and make sure we all offer a gift to our parish. Please prayerfully consider making an end-of-the-year gift to our Diocesan Annual Appeal, your Parish or other charity.
