Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. We hear these words at every Mass as the Host and Chalice are raised for all to see. Behold. Look deeply, carefully, and prayerfully. Look with the expectation that you will discover something important. Trust that Jesus wants to reveal himself to you. Behold, the Lamb of God. This is God's greatest gift to the world — to you. You are beholding Jesus, the one true sacrifice sent from heaven. He is the spotless Lamb; he is the fulfillment of ancient Israel's Passover celebration. He has come so that you can pass over from death to life. Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away sin. See in this Host the promise of forgiveness. See Jesus, who surrendered his body and blood on a cross for you; who has taken your very sin upon himself and brought it into the grave with him. See him rising again, leaving your sin behind in the grave, where it remains today. Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. Not just your sin, but the sin of every single person on earth. No one is beyond his reach. No one is devoid of hope. Everyone can know forgiveness and freedom. Even the people you are struggling to forgive. Behold him, and believe that he can bring reconciliation and healing to all people. Behold the Lamb of God! And receive him with joy and an open heart. "Lord, I am not worthy. Only say the word, and my soul shall be healed."
