This man was. . .awaiting the consolation of Israel.
Simeon was looking for God's consolation. God had promised restoration for his people, Israel. He had promised a Messiah who would sit on the throne of David and draw all the nations to Jerusalem. For many years, Simeon had prayed for these promises to be fulfilled, but nothing had happened. Israel was still an occupied nation, and her people were still divided between rich and poor, Pharisee and Sadducee, Galilean and Judean. So Simeon continued to pray for redemption. Then the day came. When Simeon took the child Jesus into his arms, the "consolation of Israel" had finally arrived. You can just hear the emotion in his words: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace." Simeon knew that everything was going to be okay. God knows your anguish; he hears your prayers; he knows your concerns. Today in the house of the Lord, you will meet Jesus in the unlikely form of bread and wine—as Simeon met him in the unlikely form of an infant. When you receive him, think of this prayerful man. Just as he did, take Jesus into your hands and into your heart. He has come to bring salvation and consolation. Christ is in you, and everything is going to be okay. "Master my eyes have seen your salvation, I surrender myself to you."
