

The Stone was Rolled Away:

The foundational belief of Christianity is that Jesus, the Son of God, is God who became flesh, and laid down his life as the one sacrifice for sins forever. The death of Jesus Christ is only meaningful to the Christian faith if it was followed by his resurrection. Paul stated this clearly in his letter to the Corinthian church: Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: and if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: and if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. 1Corinthians 15:12-19.

It is written in the Bible that after Jesus died upon the cross, his body was taken down by Joseph of Arimathea, who placed the lifeless body of Jesus in a tomb with a great stone rolled in front of the door. Then, on the third day, women coming to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus found the stone rolled away from the door of the sepulcher. They entered and did not find a dead body, because Jesus had arisen from the dead, and came forth out of the grave. This event is so miraculous and incomprehensible that it is rejected by many as nothing more than a story concocted by the followers of Jesus.

Through the use of gematria, that which is written in the Bible concerning the discovery of the stone rolled away from the sepulcher, and the truth of Jesus' resurrection can be confirmed. The method of gematria as shown in this article uses the numerical value of Hebrew root words in sentences that correspond to what is found in Scripture to show associations through confirmatory Greek words from the Bible which have the same gematria value as the sentence. Most of the gematria evidence to be shown is associated with numerical values related to the Greek spelling of Jesus, Jesus Christ, and Lord Jesus Christ. Some of the other evidence is associated with the spelling of Greek words which tell of the stone being rolled away. Although there are three Hebrew root words which can be used for "sepulcher," I used only one as I found such are large number of gematria associations with just one.

In the Gospel of Luke, the following is written about the morning when the resurrection of Jesus occurred: Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: and as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. Luke 24:1-7.

Those who came bringing spices to anoint the body of Jesus, and found the stone rolled away, were, according to what is written in Luke 23: 55-56, the women who “came with him from Galilee.” In the Gospel of Matthew, the women are said to be Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary; whereas in the Gospel of John only Mary Magdalene is mentioned, and in the Gospel of Mark, the women are said to be Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome. In any event, the first ones to find the stone rolled away from the sepulcher were women who were coming to anoint the body of the crucified Christ.

Gematria confirms that the stone was rolled away from the sepulcher.

The stone (H68) was rolled away (H1556) from (H4480) the sepulcher. (H6900)

Mary and the other women came to the sepulcher seeking the body of Jesus, and two men in shining garments, asked them why they were seeking the living among the dead, because the risen Jesus Christ was not there.

Why (H4100) seek (H1245) ye the living (H2416) among (H8432) the dead? (H4191) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) is not (H3808) here, (H6311) he is risen. (H6965)

What the two men in shining garments, i.e. angels, said to the women is confirmed by the gematria value of the following partial sentence having the same gematria value as the words which complete the sentence; both written using Hebrew root words.

The women (H802) found (H4672) the stone (H68) rolled away, (H1556) and two (H8147) men (H120) in shining (H5051) garments (H899) said (H241) unto (H413) them...

In the Gospel of Matthew, the stone placed in front of the sepulcher is described as a “great stone”: And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. Matthew 27:59-60. In the next gematria example this description of the stone is included in the sentence, and the gematria value for the sentence provides confirmation of whose body was not found in the tomb.

The women (H802) came (H935) to the sepulcher (H6900) and found (H4672) the great (H1419) stone (H68) rolled away (H1556) from (H4480) the sepulcher. (H6900) They entered (H935) and did not (H3808) find (H4672) a dead body. (H4191) (H5315)

A slightly different version of the events concerning the morning Christ arose is found in the Gospel of Matthew: In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

Matthew 28:1-6.

There was a great earthquake, and an angel of the Lord came and rolled away the stone from the door of the sepulcher.

That which is written in the Bible is true. Three days after Jesus was crucified, and placed into a sepulcher with a great stone in front of the door, the stone was miraculously rolled away, Jesus arose from the dead, and came forth out of the tomb. Although there are slight variations in how the four Gospels describe this event, the salient feature of each narrative is that the stone was rolled away, Jesus Christ arose, and the tomb was found to be empty. Gematria associations related to what is written in the Bible, using elements from both the Gospel of Luke and the Gospel of Matthew regarding the discovery of the empty tomb, provide evidence to support this truth.
