

Jesus the Son: Creator, Head of the Church, and the One Who Reconciles:

In five short verses found in the first chapter of Paul's letter to the Colossians a number of things are attributed to Jesus Christ, the Son of God. He is proclaimed as the Creator of all things in heaven and earth. He is identified as the head of the church, who is the beginning and the firstborn from the dead, who has preeminence in all things. It is said that he pleased the Father by having made peace through the blood of his cross, and reconciled all things unto himself: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell; and, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. Colossians 1:16-20. Gematria confirms that which is written in these verses to be true.

The verse states that all things were created by him in heaven and earth, "visible and invisible." Since there are no Hebrew root words used in the Bible for "visible" and "invisible" in the following sentence the root word for "seen" is used for visible, and "not seen" is used for invisible.

For (H3588) by (H4480) him were all (H3605) things created, (H1254) that are in heaven, (H8064) and that are in earth, (H776) seen (visible) (H7200) and not (H3808) seen (invisible,) (H7200) whether (H176) they be thrones, (H3678) or dominions, (H7287) or principalities, (H4761) or powers. (H3581)

JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 888 + 1480 = 2368

All things were created by him and for him.

For (H3588) by (H4480) him were all (H3605) things created, (H1254) that are in heaven, (H8064) and that are in earth, (H776) whether (H176) they be thrones, (H3678) or dominions, (H7287) or principalities, (H4761) or powers; (H3581) all (H3605) things were created (H1254) by (H4480) him, and for (H5921) him.

JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 888 + 1480 = 2368

The "him" by whom all things were created is Jesus Christ the Son of God. In the restatements of this verse to follow, "him" is replaced in the sentence by different ways to identify Jesus. In the first instance "only begotten Son" is used for "him" in a restatement of the first verse in this passage of Scripture. Also, a different Hebrew root word is used for “dominions.” In addition, the root word for “that” is used which was not used in the previous sentence (a common variation.)

By (H4480) the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) were all (H3605) things created, (H1254) that (H834) are in heaven, (H8064) and that are in earth, (H776) whether (H176) they be thrones, (H3678) or dominions, (H4474) or principalities, (H4761) or powers; (H3581) all (H3605) things were created (H1254) by (H4480) him, and for (H5921) him.

LORD (G2962) JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = Κύριος Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 800 + 888 + 1480 = 3168

In the following sentence “Christ the Lord” is used instead of “him” as found in the verse, or “only begotten Son” as in the last gematria example. Then, the Hebrew root word for “things” is used along with the word for “all” which is a common alternate way that “all things” is written in Scripture. A different root word for “whether” is also used.

By (H4480) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) the LORD, (H3068) were all (H3605) things (H1697) created, (H1254) that are in heaven, (H8064) and that are in earth, (H776) whether (H518) they be thrones, (H3678) or dominions, (H7287) or principalities, (H4761) or powers; (H3581) all (H3605) things (H1697) were created (H1254) by (H4480) him, and for (H5921) him.

In the next two examples of gematria confirmation, “Christ the Lord” is used again in place of “him” and the gematria values reveal that all of nature, visible and invisible, was created by Christ the Lord.

For (H3588) by (H4480) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) the LORD, (H3068) were all (H3605) things (H1697) created, (H1254) seen (visible) (H7200) and not (H3808) seen (invisible), (H7200) whether (H518) they be thrones, (H3678) or dominions, (H7287) or principalities, (H4761) or powers. (H3581)

As it is written in the Gospel of John, Jesus, the Word of God, is God the Creator: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. John 1: 1-3. When “the Word of God” is used in association with the Son of God, in place of “him” there is further confirmation of truth regarding Jesus Christ, the Word, as the creator of all things.

For (H3588) by (H4480) the Word, (H1697) the only (H3173) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) were all (H3605) things created. (H1254)

This is the numerical value for Jesus Christ (Yeshua Ha-Mashiach) written in proper Hebrew grammar for "Jesus the Messiah" where the Hebrew letter "ה" for "the" is used as a prefix with the word for Messiah.

Now, "Jesus Christ the Son" is used in place of "him" and the truth is again confirmed by the same gematria value of the sentence.

Gematria associations confirm that which Paul wrote to the Colossians. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Word of God, is the Creator of all things in heaven and earth. All things were created by him and for him. He is before all things and by him all things consist. He is the beginning the firstborn from the dead, and He is the head of the body of the church. Finally, and of most importance, is that through the blood of His cross Jesus Christ has reconciled us unto himself.
