

A Place Called Calvary:

The Bible informs us that Jesus was crucified at a place called Calvary: And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Luke 23:33. Although Calvary is known as the location of the crucifixion, this name for the place is only mentioned in this one verse of the Bible. In the three other Gospels, those of Matthew, Mark, and John, the place of the crucifixion is identified by another name, Golgotha: And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, they gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, they parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. Matthew 27:32-35; And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a skull. And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. Mark 15:21-24; Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. John 19:16-18.

The Greek word Calvary, from which the English word “cranium” is derived, means “skull.” Likewise, Golgotha is the Hebrew name which also means “skull.” Each name refers to a knoll outside of the city of Jerusalem which was called “the place of the skull.” Gematria which uses the numerical value of Hebrew root words to restate that which is written in the Bible regarding Calvary confirms the truth of Scripture through the associated Greek words which have the same gematria values as the sentences.

In the OT of the Bible the word “cross” is not used. In the NT the cross is frequently referred to as a “tree;” as in the following verse: The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Acts 5:30. Also, since the word “crucify” is not found in the OT, the Hebrew root words for “hung upon a tree” are used for “crucified” in the gematria examples to follow.

First, is a sentence which perfectly restates what the Bible says.

Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H11121) of God, (H430) was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the cross (tree) (H6086) at the place (H4725) of the skull. (H1538)

Another simple statement of scriptural truth is the following, and the gematria value confirms that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God who was slain at Calvary. Since the word “Calvary” means “skull” the Hebrew root word for skull is used in place of Calvary in the gematria evidence to follow.

The only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God (H430) was slain (H2026) at Calvary (skull). (H1538)

In writing that Jesus Christ is our great high priest, the author of the Letter to the Hebrews states that Christ offered himself as the ultimate sacrifice: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Hebrews 9:14. Jesus sacrificed himself upon the cross at Calvary.

A pattern was set by the Law of Moses that the shedding of blood was required for atonement of sins, as stated by the author of the Letter to the Hebrews: And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. Hebrews 9:22. Paul, in his letter to the Romans proclaims that the blood which Jesus shed upon the cross was the atonement for our sins: For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. Romans 5:6-11. Gematria confirms that we have received atonement for our sins through Christ's death upon the cross at Calvary.

The death of Jesus upon the cross at Calvary made atonement for our sins. However, Christ told his disciples that after he was put to death he would arise again the third day: And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again. Matthew 20:17-19. Paul wrote to the church at Corinth that this did come true: For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: Corinthians 15:3-4. In Acts it is written that God raised Jesus his Son after he was crucified: The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Acts 5:30.

Jesus Christ was crucified at Calvary and died to make atonement for our sins, and just as Christ was raised from the dead, we that believe shall also be raised: Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: Romans 6:4-5. And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. 1Corinthians 6:14. Jesus said that everyone who believes in the Son of God will be raised to everlasting life in the last day: And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. John 6:40.

Paul explained in Romans the way in which we can be saved and have assurance that in the end we will be raised up by God: That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Romans 10:9. Perhaps the gematria evidence which I have presented in this article will encourage someone to consider what has been written in the Bible concerning Jesus' sacrifice upon the cross, and the promise of salvation for all who believe that he died for our sins and arose from the dead.
