The Maze Runner is an adventure book filled with nonstop action and thrills. It is a perfect book for anyone because James Dashner did an amazing job to keep the book moving. He also created all the characters to have different personalities that made them seem like real people. For an example, the main character, Thomas, has a brave personality, which makes him do things without thinking which earns him respect from all his peers, while Newt, his friend, has a strict personality which makes him formal around a lot and pick fights with everybody. James Dashner portrays Minho, another friend, as an aggressive, gung-ho, teenage boy with a serious anger management problem. Over all these characters were very realistic teenage boys, who all had the one will to survive the maze.

This book was amazing because it kept me fascinated during a very long car ride. It had non-stop action that made the car ride pass in a blur. The book kept me absorbed and was better than any electronic device I could have brought. This is a must read for anybody!
