Create Your Profile

Your description should be a few paragraphs. Teachers also love to read details about where their class can eat lunch or use the restroom. Mention nearby lunch spots as well.

Tag Your Place

Check off the appropriate tags. Make sure to check of the most accurate tags so you are categorized correctly.

Add an Image

Click the green add image button. You may add up to five photos. They should be landscape photos greater than 2,000 px. Make sure to attribute them to the correct person.

Set Opening Hours

Check your opening hours. If your field trip and institutional hours differ, leave it blank so no one gets confused.

Add the Educational URL

This is your chance to direct teachers right to the education page on your website. Link to the page that you think is most helpful.

Time to Move On

Click the save button to save your work, click the save and create a field trip button to begin creating your field trips. To return to your profile, where you can preview, click profile.

Describe Your Learning Opportunity

A learning opportunity can be a field trip, an assembly, a performance, a workshop or any other way you work with schools. Make sure to describe in detail what you do and how it connects.

Enter Price Options

Click the green button to add a price option. You will be prompted to enter the price and indicate if its per group or per person. Add as many price options as necessary.

Add a URL

This URL can link to pre and post materials or anything else that relates to the specific opportunity you're describing.

Tag Your Opportunity

Please be specific. Any tags that you use here will also show up on the place.

Need Help with Scheduling?

We worked with our first partners to build a scheduling software right into this platform, It is just as easy as to use as this is. Nearly two years later everyone is still using it! We offer a shared calendar, data export, calendar sync, personalized messages upon request, confirmation and trip lead up as well as payment processing. To learn more, reach out to info@explorableplaces.com.
