Hasani Banks is a 22 year old from Sacramento, California . Hasani graduated from Grambling State University with a degree in English. While at Grambling Hasani crafted his skills by engineering unprofessionally for four years. Hasani was president of the performing arts organization called Lyrical Quest. During his time with Lyrical Quest Hasani worked with many artists, which ultimately improved his ability to communicate and instruct artists as a producer/engineer. Outside of engineering and production, Hasani is a avid spoken word artist and rapper.
