

JEWISH / MASONIC / JESUIT CORRUPTION OF THE BIBLE

As these non-Christian forces grew in power, who once utilized the newly invented Printing-Press to cause the Reformation which ended Christ reigning supreme on Earth, they viciously attacked Christianity by corrupting its holy book, the Bible. The 1984 published edition of the N.I.V. was highly corrupted and should dismay all Christians from reading it. On the other hand, its corruption was nothing compared to the new 2011 version.

Within the '84 NV there are innumerable scriptures which had been regulated to mere footnotes. Whence once reads what these scriptures are, it's obvious that we're dealing with the typical crypto-Jewish corruption of Christianity, always designed to diminish Christ's power, eliminate him as the Son of God, separate Christians from God, etcetera. Likewise, within the 2011 NV these footnotes have been completely-eliminated!

Q But one may ask how can they entirely remove a scripture?

A The synoptic gospels have become more and more exact, not simply close representations.

Here's 2 examples → 1. Matthew 23:14 was removed in '84 and printed as a footnote. In 2011, it doesn't even appear as a footnote, instead reading as "some manuscripts include here words similar to Mark 12:40 and Luke 20:47."

2. Matthew 18:11 was also removed in '84 and subjugated to a footnote, yet in 2011 no longer feature the scripture. It simply refers the reader to Luke 20:47!

Here's a small list of addition scripture changed as a footnote in '84, only to be eliminated in 2011...

- Mk 7:16 (refers reader to Mk 4:23)

Mk 11:26 (Mt 6:15)

Mk 9:44 (refers reader to verse 48)

Mk 15:28 (Luke 22:37)

Mk 9:46 (verse 48)

This was merely an example from one Gospel

Jesus said that the Devil is a big liar and every time he opens his mouth he speaks lies, because he has no truth whatsoever in him (John 8:44). Satan will steal, kill and destroy everything you love and hold dear in life (John 10:10).

The King James Bible can at times be arduous to understand, due to the Older English style of writing, nonetheless, this Bible's derived from the Textus Receptus (or Received Text) from Antioch. The New King James Bible is translated from the Alexandrian Manuscripts and nothing good ever comes from Egypt. Furthermore, there have been numerous intention corruptions to the NKJB to lead Christians astray.

Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort who used the corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts to produce their 1881 work titled, "The New Testament in The Original Greek" - these men were more like Arian Christians (long passed) or Jehovah Witnesses as they denied Christ as being God! It's actually Westcott and Hort's translation which all modern Bibles are originally modelled after, with further corruptions taken place!

The NKJB is almost exactly the same as the NIV. There was an abundance of Bibles released at the same time, wherefore, if a person was to compare one Bible with another they'll appeared the same; and must be the accurate truth - lies.

The NIV, NKJ, NAS, RSV, and ASV are all examples of this corruption.

Verse	King James Bible	NKJV	Agreeing Bibles
Acts 3:26	God, having raised up his Son	His Servant	NIV, NASV, ASV, RSV, Roman Catholic NAB
Acts 17:22	I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious .	very religious	NIV, NASV, ASV, RSV, Catholic NAB, etc
Romans 1:25	Who changed the truth of God into a lie	who exchanged the truth of God for the lie	NIV, NASV, ASV, RSV, Catholic NAB, etc.
1 Corinthians 1:18	For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.	who are being saved	NIV, NASV, NASU, RSV, Catholic NAB, etc.

To clarify the corrupting forces behind the Bible, huge money was implored to publish, and certain individuals hired to translate these new Bibles. The Jesuits, for example, fought for the Catholic Church during the Reformation and were out to corrupt the great Protestant King James Bible and were involved in the wording of the New King James.

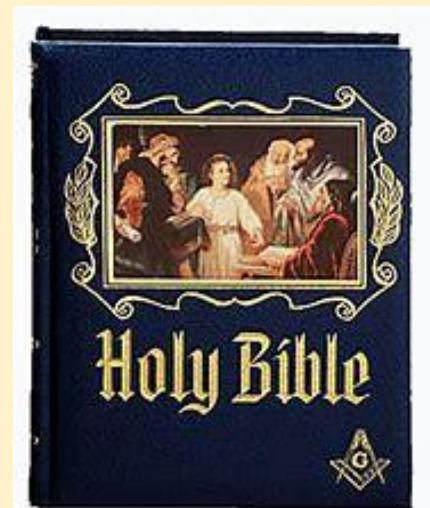

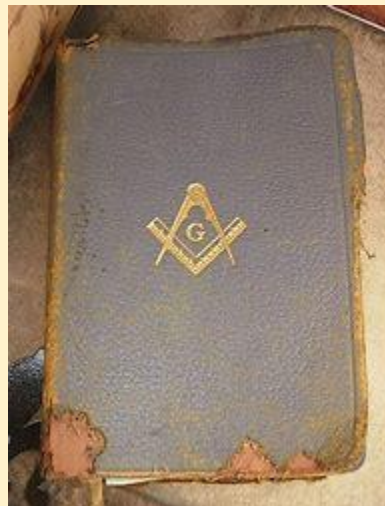

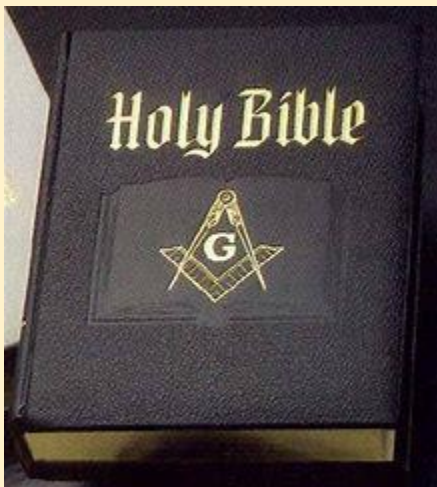

Now, if we desire to witness the Christians attempting to be eliminated from the Old Testament Hebrew scriptures, we need only to turn to the Book of Isiah for a great example. Although, surprisingly the NKJ is more gentile-friendly than the original. In contrast, the New American Bible is not so, and attempts concealing God's friendliness to the Greeks and other non-Israeli's.

e.g. Chapter 56 of the Book of Isiah within the NKJV is titled Salvation for the Gentiles, (catches the reader's attention), whereas, the KJV is simply titled The Rewards for Keeping God's Covenant.

⊗ They both speak of people from other nations (non-Jews) being welcomed into the family of the Lord. As long, as the keep His covenant God will bless them with His rewards. The NKJV even refers to the gentiles as foreigners, a more respectful title and the KJV also refrains from using the word gentile in this chapter, (referring to the Greeks, etc.), though instead of foreigner it says strangers; which is worded in the sense the reader might think they're still discussing Jews. (who've strayed from God's work but are implementing a return). Comparatively, for this evaluation exercise we'll examine the NAB which labels the chapter, Salvation for the Just. All things considered, between verses 2 and 3 there's a sub-title, Obligations and Promises to Share in the Covenant. Correspondingly, chapter 3 immediately begins with the words, "The foreigner.."

In conclusion, The KJB delivers the correct information but worded for those experienced in translating Older English phrases and are aware of what specific words actually-represent throughout the Bible. Yes, the original scriptures have been translated, but the method of which they spoke has been carried-over into the Bible. Not to mention, the KJB was completed in 1611 making it over 400 years old.

Above: A look at the most corrupt (Luciferian doctrine) Masonic Bibles. It may be one of these Bible that Presidents from George Washington to George Bush Jr. placed their right-hand upon and swore-in as President of the United States.
