

STACIE C. SIMPSON-BIO FOR WEBSITE

Stacie Simpson was born in Chicago, IL. She lived in Bronx, NY during her elementary years and in middle school, landed in New Jersey where she has resided for over 45 years. Her college years led her to Philadelphia, PA where she pursued her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Temple University. Although saved at an early age, Stacie began seriously following the Lord in 1985 where she purposed to devour the Word of God and serve wherever there was a need.

From 1987 to 1994 Stacie served at Love of Jesus Family Church as Youth Pastor, Dance Team Worship Leader and Choir Member. She then joined Hallelujah Christian Fellowship Word of Faith ministries (HCF), and served for about 20 years, as an Elder, Minister of Music and Worship Leader. After serving at HCF, the Lord directed Stacie to found Scarlet Thread Ministries, a unique 'church without walls' ministry dedicated to equipping Kingdom minded disciples to go out into all the world and fill the earth with the hands and feet of Jesus. To date, the ministry has led several mission trips and served in Haiti and Jamaica.

Stacie is a passionate worshiper who believes in worshiping the Lord with reckless abandonment and encourages those she leads to do the same. Her desire is to bring people into the presence of God in a more intimate way, believing that in His presence there is truly fullness of joy and pleasures forevermore.

Stacie's most notable achievement has been raising her three God-fearing daughters, Kira, Melody, and Taylor who each serve the Lord across the United States. She is also the proud grandparent of her handsome grandson, Zaire, son of Adrian and Kira Silvera. To God be all the glory!
