

Executives

Thomas L. Tucker, Chairman, President

Over 25 years of experience in applied research and management capacities in the medical device and diagnostics industry, focused primarily in the diabetes arena.

Alan J. Leszinske, Director, CTO, Principal Investigator

Over 35 years of experience in corporate management, small business start-ups, investment banking, capital formation, and technology conceptualization, incubation and maturation. Six issued patents, two reissued, one extended, and additional patents in varying stages of the application process.

Laurel Hull, (USMC, Ret.) , Corporate Secretary and Editor

Twenty years as Marine Corps Adjutant Officer and another twenty in the private non-profit sector as a senior executive, chairperson and administrator for a national organization supporting the families of U.S. Marines and Navy Corpsmen.

Professional Staff Members

Elizabeth S. Meek, RN, BSN, MSN, Clinical Nursing Director

More than a decade of direct experiences in critical and intensive care nursing, unit management and nursing education.

Joshua M. Farrell, JD, Corporate Counsel and Analytics

Principal Attorney at Farrell Law, PLLC, of Muskegon, Michigan, specializing in Family Law, Estate Planning, Civil Litigation and Business Planning. Brings considerable experience in legal research/discovery, negotiation, courtroom litigation, and contract review.

Tyler N. Emorey, Market Research, Analytics and Sales

Senior Information Security Analyst with nearly a decade of experience in cybersecurity. Brings real-world experience, as well as, degrees in both marketing and finance.

Administrative and Support Staff Members

Isaac Peterson, Archivist & Laboratory Technician

Land surveyor with a depth of field experience and expertise with GPS and robotic systems. Mr. Peterson has years of experience in data management, as an archivist and as a laboratory technician in the medical technology innovation industry.

Barb Helsen, Administrative Support

Nearly two decades as public school administrative assistant to the principal and athletic director. Background also includes more than a decade of experience in the private sector. First as administrative assistant to the owner of a large electrical company and then for the president of an engineering firm.

Randy Helsen, Marketing Research & Webmaster

Nearly forty years as an educator and athletic coach, as well as a decade as board president for a private school. Undergraduate degree in business. Taught high school classes in business, entrepreneurial studies, and website design, in addition to producing, managing, and updating the district's web page.

