Always known as big backers of local stock car racing including WIR, this year Ken's Sports is celebrating its 50th year in business. "It's one of those things where anything we can do to support the local racing is good for WIR," said Jay Vanderloop, owner/sales manager. "A lot of our customers go to WIR on Thursday nights and also to the dragstrip. We're thrilled to be part of what's going on out there."

Jay's Dad, Ken Vanderloop, founded the family business in 1968. "Dad's a big race fan himself," Jay pointed out. "WIR has always been in our blood and background."
