Our Meadows Lair Airbnb has hosted many couples since we opened in June 2018. All have left positive remarks on our online review page:

Jan and Barbara, Berkeley, CA — September 2019

- ◆ We were very happy with our stay – Don & Linda are great hosts and gave us a lot of great guidance for things to do in the vicinity, especially in Murphys and Arnold. Highly recommended!

Randall, Citrus Heights, CA — September 2019

- ◆ Downtown Murphys can be loud and chaotic at times, Meadow Lair's is just the opposite. Don and Linda are friendly and very welcoming hosts. And, the accommodations were clean, warm and inviting. Just the ticket after a day downtown. Early mornings on the deck were the best! Mimosas, hummingbirds, and the quiet noises of the Sierra Nevada mountains. We were so happy to have found this place. We will be back!

Natalie, Byron, CA — August 2019

- ◆ Nice and private, very comfortable and great hosts. Highly recommend!

Tamara, Roseville, CA — August 2019

- ◆ Don & Linda's suite was absolutely perfect! We definitely scored when we found this place. We went to a concert at Ironstone and it was close and quick to get there and back, as well as close to their cute little downtown area for a yummy dinner and breakfast. Their suite was immaculate, the beds were comfortable, the view off the back porch was amazing and their amenities were more than we hoped for! The best part was how kind and welcoming Don & Linda were to us. Really great people! We love that concert venue and hope to return every summer and stay at their place!

Jessica, Jamestown, CA — July 2019

- ◆ Don and Linda were amazing hosts. They made our stay enjoyable. They offered local suggestions, the place was extremely clean, and they added a great little touch of coffee and water. We enjoyed sipping coffee and wine admiring the stunning view from their deck. They are close to downtown Murphys and it was fairly easy to get taxi service to downtown and the concert at Ironstone from their place. I will definitely stay here again in the future and highly recommend.

Billy and Kellie, Tracy, CA — June 2019

- ◆ Everything was over the top for an Airbnb. Linda and Don were very gracious and friendly hosts. They made sure to have everything one would need for a stay away from home: hair dryer, full-size coffee pot with coffee beans, grinder and additives, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, living room area with TV, small refrigerator, wine cooler, kitchen with dishes and utensils, microwave. The bed was super comfortable. I like a soft bed and he likes a firm bed. I would say it was more on the firm side, but I actually liked it. They even offered wine that a previous guest left in the wine cooler.

John and Roxana, Walnut Creek, CA — May 2019

- ◆ A truly great experience. Well located to both Murphys and Big Tree State Park, as well as a wonderful place to just relax and watch the sun go down. Don and Linda are great people and outstanding hosts with great advice for places to enjoy including spots that only locals would know about. The accommodations were clean, classy, and a great value. We are definitely going back :).

Teresa and Dennis, American Canyon, CA — March 2019

- ◆ Don and Linda are wonderful host, you feel welcomed the minute you step into their beautiful home. Make time to have evening wine or morning coffee on the deck. Great location for many itineraries. Cheers!

Katie and Jay, Lodi, CA — February 2019

- ◆ Don and Linda are sweet and hospitable and welcoming. We were able to unwind and relax in their warm and comfy accommodations. We will definitely stay with them again!

Pavan, Sunnyvale, CA — January 2019

- ◆ Don and Linda were so kind to us and help us to settle down comfortably and gave us a lot tips about the nearby restaurants. The bedrooms are awesome and neat, as well as the bathroom. They had towels and soap, too. This is the best place to stay in Murphys.

Lyndi, Stockton, CA — November 2018

- ◆ We really enjoyed our stay. Close to wine tasting, dining and hiking, quiet and safe location. Hosts were knowledgeable about local restaurants and activity. Space was roomy and laid out well. Mattress was perfect. Bedroom had a lovely view of the foothills.

We had the whole downstairs to ourselves, and the patio outside our room had an amazing view especially with all the stars at night. It was exactly what we were looking for our anniversary getaway.
