Pastor's Corner

Pr. J. David Bryant

Friends,

Cartoonist, Dennis Fletcher, is widely known for using satire to point to realities of congregational life. By using humor, Dennis highlights common challenges to congregational ministry and mission. A common challenge for congregations is anxiety. Anxiety enters congregations from many angles. One angle from which anxiety enters is finance. Now—at this point, please don't huff and flip the page. I am not about to encourage a pledge increase. But, if you felt that page-turning urge, then know that you experienced the power of anxiety around finance.

Money conversations make congregations very anxious, and often, it's because congregations live collection plate to collection plate. Few congregations have 6-8 months of cash reserves held in savings. Few congregations have foresight to position themselves into a fiscal space where they can borrow against themselves and set their own interest rate (or set none at all). Few congregations grow into a mature understanding of finance.

JOY doesn't have to live as those congregations do. Through present day wise fiscal strategies, JOY can create a future for itself that does not include deep anxiety around money issues. How? Well, how about, by living into Proverbs 27: 23-27? Some part of living into Proverb's biblical, fiscal pattern might include consideration of "legacy giving."

Legacy giving is one of the most under-utilized means to fund God's ministry. Yet, when properly utilized, it has an amazing ability to free congregations of financial stress and to open congregations to dream. Congregations, just like households, say/think things like, "it'd be nice if we had a _____ but we don't have the money," or, "wouldn't we love to do _____ but we don't have the money." Okay---so we don't have it now, true enough, but what might it look like were we have it in the future. Legacy giving makes this possible. Here are two examples of its power:

1) In 2019, a Lutheran congregation in Central Florida received $30,000 from the sale of a 10-acre tract of land in Reeves County, TX. Back in the 1980s, the tract had been won in a poker game by my wife's uncle Hugh. Hugh died in 2012, left the tract to the congregation, the tract sold, and the congregation was the benefactor of Uncle Hugh's legacy gift.

2) In 1990, a home interior designer was dying. He loved

"Basically, we're looking for an innovative pastor with a fresh vision who will inspire our church to remain exactly the same."

his congregation and his spouse, wanted both to be well after he was deceased. His solution was to purchase two $1 million dollar life insurance policies: one for the spouse and one for the congregation. Of course, his death occurs, and everyone grieves, but to this day, interest from this gentleman's legacy gift funds charitable ventures in his home congregation.

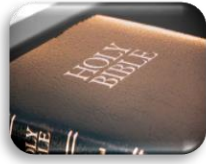

Perhaps you are thinking, "Pastor Bryant is being even crazier than usual." Not so! Pastor Bryant is simply asking us to be more imaginative and innovative in our fiscal strategies. Within our homes, we ponder what we'll leave loved ones upon our passing, why not ponder how we'll treat our congregation as one of our loved ones?

Proverbs 27:23-24 says, "Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds; for riches do not last forever, nor a crown for all generations." If nothing else, this sobering text invites us to strategize. "Give attention to your herds" is the strategy offered. How come? Because, as Proverbs 27 goes on to say, "...the lambs will provide your clothing, and the goats the price of a field; there will be enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household and nourishment for your servants."

For JOY Lutheran to reduce anxiety around money matters, legacy giving becomes a viable solution. And, it's not the only solution. Still, in 2020, legacy giving conversations need to happen. On February 2nd, Pr. Ana Loyda Lugo will be with us from the ELCA Foundation. I've asked her to make a presentation to JOY during the announcements. Space in the service will be made to accommodate her presentation so that we do not run long. After all, we've our annual meeting on that day. Pr. Ana is a grand lady. I'm looking forward to her visit and I hope you are, too.

Blessings---JDB+

Educational offering during Lent

("5 Tough Questions")

Sunday evenings 5:30PM. Stephen Bryant, Lenoir-Rhyne University graduate w/B.S.in Religious Development, currently completing 2nd semester of master's study via American University will facilitate a discussion of "5 Tough Questions" facing God's 21st century church.

Worship and Music

Worship and Music is discussing purchasing a new set of Paraments. It was brought to our attention that many Lutheran Churches use Crimson Paraments for Holy Week. This is something we believe would add to the beauty and reflection of the season. The Paraments will run about $2,800.00.

We are discussing ways to raise the funds for the purchase. We are looking into Thrivent, Memorial Funds and congregational support. If you personally have designated funds in the Memorial Account that you may want to contribute to this project, or you would personally be willing to make a donation, please let myself or Linda Collins know. This will help in our planning.

Blessings to All,
Chris Allebaugh

Saturday Night Pilgrim Journey Service February 29th @ 5:30pm

The Saturday evening Pilgrim Journey service format is a more informal worship service of prayer and praise. It will also be followed by a PIZZA FELLOWSHIP.

Prayer - Praise - Pizza

When you arrive for the service at 5:30 pm there will be a sign up for pizza. There is no charge, but we ask that you think about a donation of just $1 a slice. There will be a choice of toppings. Just let us know how many slices you want and what kind, and we will place the order and it will be ready after the service.

Tea and lemonade will be provided, or else bring your own beverage.

Ash Wednesday Service

February 26th at 6:30 pm

Ash Wednesday and Mid-Week Lenten Services at Joy

The season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 26th with a service of the Imposition of Ashes and Holy Communion at Joy. This service will be at 6:30 pm. On the five following Wednesday evenings, we will have a simple soup and sandwich supper together beginning at 6:00pm. Following dinner, at 6:30 pm, we will have a brief service of worship using Holden Evening Prayer.

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper February 25th at 6:00pm

The origin of Shrove Tuesday comes from the idea of - the night before Lent begins - consuming everything in the household from which one planned to abstain during Lent. We serve pancakes to connect us to the customs of a time when flour, eggs, milk, butter and other food items were all on the Lenten abstinence list. These days we celebrate the evening before Ash Wednesday more as a foretaste of the feast to come at Easter. (ELCA)

Lenten & Holy Week Service Times

February 25th - Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper 6pm. Brief "Burning of the Palms" beforehand.

February 26th - Ash Wednesday 6:30pm

March 4th through April 1st (Wednesdays): Holden Evening Prayer midweek 6pm soup & sandwich dinner, 6:30pm service.

April 9th - Maundy Thursday 6:30pm (If you are able, bring sock donation for homeless.)

April 10th - Good Friday Tenebrae 6:30pm

April 12th - Easter Sunday

LENT

Well, I guess Christmas is finally over! What began before Halloween, bolstered by “Black Friday”, peaking on December 25th and culminating on Epiphany is definitely one of the highlights of the year. It was a great holiday except perhaps, for those who lost loved ones recently. Family togetherness is an important part of Christmas as it was for that first family and for our church family. Both Judy and I lost our mothers this past year so there was a real void in our family that can never again be filled. The good news, is that their average age was over 100 years and that led us to celebrate both lives lived under the cross of Jesus. Both were servants and I purposely use the word “saint” to refer to both of them.

Now with Lent beginning soon, life gets back to normal reality. Ash Wednesday is February 26th. A day of true reality. A day that is as somber as it can get. Ashes on our foreheads reminds us that we are not as great as we think we are. We are dust and to dust we shall return. How awful! I hate those words. I used them at both of our mothers’ funerals last year. Anyway, it’s a somber reminder for us to do some self-reflecting or introspection and contemplate just what Jesus did for us. Lent is definitely a low point in the church year. Who am I really? What am I doing with my life? Why did Jesus have to die? Am I responsible? Then comes Maundy Thursday 30 years after that first Christmas. That was another down day when Jesus revealed to his disciples what was about to happen to Him. So, what did he do? He got down on His knees and washed the feet of each and every one of those twelve. Yuk! But you know that was Jesus’ true human nature. He was a servant of all. Yes, here is the Lord of all washing the dirty feet of those lowly disciples. You talk about loving, caring, serving, healing, His not exercising His Lordship but serving one another. Washing feet! I think that’s what is terribly missing today. Not the washing of feet, but the caring for the least of these. Loving the worst, showing compassion to one another, helping each other. That’s what Jesus was really all about and that’s what Jesus wants of us. He said later, before he took the bread and wine that this was His body and His blood which was shed for all of us. Of course, this literally happened the very next day.

Following comes Good Friday, which I think is the most important day of the Christian Church year. That day, our Salvation was secured. By his dying on the cross that day, our sins were washed away – forever. Jesus died with our sins on his shoulders to free us; to cleanse us. Yes, we are freed from sin, not just the sins we confess, but even the ones that we don’t. “Known and Unknown” the creed says, forever.

Good Friday is when we were given the greatest gift of all time. It’s the reason Jesus came in the first place. As opposed to “Black Friday” when we all go stand in line and buy all those “just gifts”. Good Friday’s gift is, was and always will be free. So, accept it. It’s free for the taking. That “low” day for Jesus, became the “high” day for us. That’s if we call it “Good Friday”. “Truly He was the Son of God” – the centurion said at the cross. That’s what Lent is all about.

Oh yes, and then comes Easter!

+ Daily Bread Serves meals to people in need. They also help connect people to resources they need, addressing long term needs and overcoming hunger and poverty and homelessness. Hot showers in the hygiene building. Clean clothes.

Men of Joy

Our men's group is working on a project for which we could really use the donation of a working flat panel LCD TV of 50" size or larger. This could be your old HDTV that you are upgrading with a newer 4K. We'd appreciate any help with this, and we think that the project will be a real benefit to the church. The men's group is also planning a garage sale as a fund raiser, but this is still in the planning stages and has not yet been scheduled. Keep us in mind if you have any old tools, small appliances, electronics and small furniture items (no clothing or children's toys, please).

The men's group usually meets on the first Saturday of the month at 9:30 a.m. at church. These meetings include some light business but also a brief devotional and a lot of mutual support. All the men associated with the congregation are welcome.

Note that the men's group is not the same organization as the property team, although there is overlap between the two. Of course, ladies and youth are welcome at the property work days while the men's group is the men's equivalent of WELCA for our ladies.

News from 1-11-2020 meeting

The ELCA has “Good Gifts”, gifts that fight hunger and transform lives of needy people in foreign countries. A vote was taken to purchase farm animals from ELCA “GOOD GIFTS” as WELCA’s charity for 2020. An example would be: piglets @ $30.00, goats @ $60.00, chicks @$10.00, a family farm (cow, couple goats, dozen chicks, 2-pigs, farming tools, seeds and agricultural training) @$715.00. Our gifts would go where most needed and sent by the ELCA. ELCA church wide ministries are in 77 countries.

WELCA would like to include the congregation in the “Good Gifts/Farm Animals” project. The fundraiser would be headed up by WELCA. BOLD WOMEN SUNDAY (Feb 23) would be the official startup date. The closing date would be Easter (April 12).

Needy Student fund: Once a year, WELCA helps with Wal-Mart gift cards for student/family needs at Turner Elementary. These cards are used for clothing and/or food for the family. The motion was made, seconded and carried to put aside $1000.00 for this purpose.
