HISTORIC PORT NORFOLK

PORCH TALK

NEXT CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING:
THURSDAY, APRIL 4 @ 7 PM

Port Norfolk Recreation Center, 423 Broad Street

Porch Crawl

"An informal porch party, with the right sort of hostess, will rouse enthusiasm.

Refreshment...should be homemade if practicable. Too often our fashions for public luncheons are settled by the caterers, and what they find it most convenient to serve.

Wherever there is a historical aspect...why not plan the food to be served to fit the period as carefully as we do the costumes?.

Pies and doughnuts, loaf cakes and cookies are to be chosen rather than the ices and angel cakes of the present day, and often will win applause because they are less common than ice cream. Since ice cream cones have become daily food, it is no longer a rarity, a 'treat,' in the old sense of that word."
